Background & Overview

Since fall 2008, BMCC has partnered with Brooklyn College (BC) to offer its students the opportunity to experience the Brooklyn College campus while enrolled in BMCC classes on Saturdays during the fall and spring semester. This resource sheet is intended to assist you in navigating the Brooklyn College campus while sharing essential information about the resources available to you as a BMCC @ Brooklyn College student.

Location

All BMCC @ Brooklyn College classes are held at 2900 Bedford Ave., Brooklyn, NY 11210 in the Boylan Hall Building.

Coordinator's Office

The coordinator's office is in Room 3129 in Boylan Hall, a classroom.

Library & Study Area

As a BMCC student, you will have access to the library at Brooklyn College. In addition to the wide selection of printed materials, students will have access to more than 68,000 electronic books and journals. The library is also home to some rare artifacts, including historic articles, letters and clippings, as well as art and sculpture from artists famous and unknown.

The library is open on Saturday from 10 am – 6 pm. Group Study Rooms are available for use on a first come, first served basis. Reservations must be made to gain access to the study rooms; there is a 2-hour limit on room reservations. For more information please log onto

Food

The Library Café is a great spot to relax. The café is equipped with internet access and a Starbuck coffee kiosk. The Library Café is located in the basement of Whitehead Hall and is opened 24 hours/7 days a week to BMCC students with a valid student ID. You can also enjoy various dining options in the neighborhood.

Printing/Scanning Services

BMCC students do not have printer access at this location. Please print any assignments before arriving to campus.

Textbooks

All textbooks must be ordered through the BMCC Barnes & Noble bookstore at 199 Chambers Street. If you wish to purchase items, other than textbooks at the Brooklyn College bookstore, you will receive a 10% discount if you show your BMCC ID card.

WiFi Access

WiFi service is available to BMCC students and faculty. Please contact the coordinator for more details.
