MIDDLE STATES COMMISSION

Welcome to BMCC

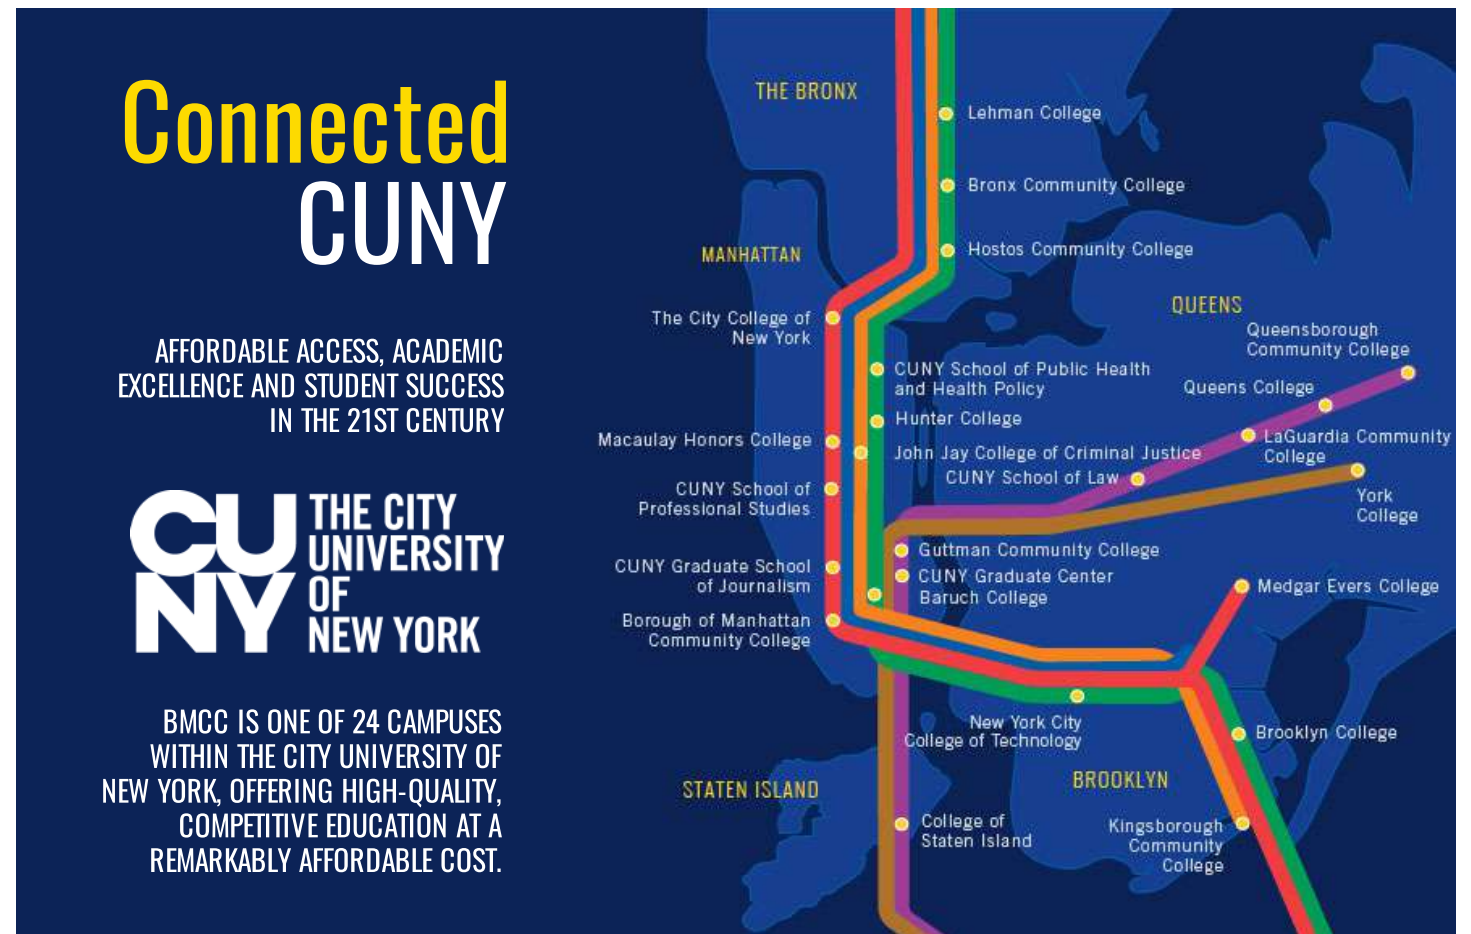

Borough of Manhattan Community College (BMCC) is accredited by the Middle States Commission of Higher Education and offers a wide range of academic programs that will prepare you for a successful future.

BMCC is the affordable, inclusive, and smart way to begin your university experience in the U.S.

Why Community College?

BMCC is a community college. A community college is a 2 year, junior college where you can complete your first 2 years and earn an Associate degree. After earning an Associate degree, many BMCC students transfer to a 4 year, senior college to earn a Bachelor's degree. This is much less expensive than doing all 4 years at a senior college.

Why International Students Choose BMCC

More than 600 international students, representing 112 countries and speaking 111 languages, start their educational journey at BMCC for quality learning and savings.

- Located in one of the world's premier locations; lower Manhattan steps away from the One World Trade Center, Wall Street, Battery Park, and more.
- #1 in New York that awards associate degrees in the areas of: Business, STEM, Nursing, Education, Criminal Justice, Computer Technology and Liberal Arts.
- Top #3 community college nationally; recognized for academic research, supporting minority students, and increasing graduates earning power.

WHAT is an international student?

An international student is a non-immigrant with F-1 status. If you are a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, you are not considered an international student.

If you are in the U.S. on another type of non-immigrant status and want to study at BMCC, or if you are not sure about your status, please contact us at internationaladmissions@bmcc.cuny.edu.

BMCC faculty are professionals in various career fields and bring real-world experiences to the classroom. Faculty broaden the educational experience with student research projects and hands-on learning opportunities. The faculty and student diversity provides an opportunity for exciting exchanges of ideas and fosters respect for different perspectives and cultures.

“One of the reasons I decided to teach at BMCC is because of the diversity and the many cultures intertwined in a single place. I feel connected to so many countries just by being in the classroom.”

~Joel Baker, Accounting Professor
