

BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Office of Compliance and Diversity

U.S. Department of Education Office of Civil Rights

PRESENTS

Addressing Discrimination
Based on Shared Ancestry
or Ethnic Characteristics,
Such as Antisemitic or Islamophobic Harassment, in Schools

February 27, 2024
2:00 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED

The training will be via Zoom and open to students, staff and faculty. Please register to receive the zoom link to attend: <https://forms.gle/RJtzMxh8YPegEWMc8>

SPEAKERS

Lauren Numeroff, David Krieger and Coleen Chin will present Addressing Discrimination Based on Shared Ancestry or Ethnic Characteristics, Such as Antisemitic, Anti-Muslim, or Anti-Arab Harassment in Schools.

Lauren, David, and Coleen are Senior Attorneys with the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights, New York Regional office. The office investigates, mediates and resolves complaints alleging violations of federal civil rights laws, including those based on shared ancestry, by educational institutions that receive financial assistance from the U.S. Department of Education.
