

Vol. 1, Issue 2 May/June 2007

BMCC Home Events News

The Road to 2008

Ron Hayduk, an associate professor of political science, has never been reticent about expressing his views on the American political scene. As co-founder of the Immigrant Voting Project and the author of several books on the electoral process, he is interviewed often on TV and radio and in major newspapers across the nation. He recently shared his perspectives on the next presidential race with InsideBMCC. Read more

Writing Across the Curriculum

An innovative program trains faculty to make writing an integral part of the learning experience. Read more

Confronting a Worldwide Scourge

A BMCC conference explores the root causes, pervasive threat and devastating impact of trafficking in women and children. Read more

Veterans Day

An Employee Recognition luncheon honors five BMCC staffers representing nearly a century-and-a-half of service to the college. Read more

UPCOMING EVENTS

Guys and Dolls

March 28, 2:00 PM & 8:00 PM
March 29 and March 30, 7:00 PM
Theater 1

Women's Herstory Month:

Readings of Short Works by Early American Women Dramatists
March 30, 2:00 PM
Hudson Room

MoneyWorks

Rent or Buy?
April 11, 2:00 PM
N402

Highlights in Jazz: Thelonious Monk 90th Birthday Celebration

April 12, 8:00 PM
Tribeca Performing Arts Center

Technology Day 2007

April 13, 10:00 AM
Richard Harris Terrace

Center for Continuing Education & Workforce Development:

Tour of Tribeca Open Artists Studios

April 28, 1:00 PM
70 Murray St. 14th floor

REMINDERS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

SPRING RECESS - No classes, but college is open. April 2-10

See the Full Academic Calendar

ARRIVALS & DEPARTURES

Bienvenue New Faculty and Staff

Bon Voyage, Faculty and Staff

Office of Public Affairs If you have a story or suggestions, click here

